World Book Day Thursday 5th March @Sutton @Bugthorpe

Just a date for the diary. It would be great for the children to come dressed as book characters that day. Both PTFA's have discussed the idea of everyone donating books (new or nearly new) to add to our school libraries for World Book Day. A list of authors will follow in due course - I think this would be a delightful thing to do. The PTFA at Bugthorpe have just had a spend on the library with new rugs, cushions, seating and decoration – it is going to look fabulous. The PTFA at Sutton have agreed to contribute greatly to our new library that is being installed in the Easter holidays.
